WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

"A Dull Season," which is Really Not So Very Dull.

In Spite of the Absence of the President, is not expected to commence until October. Cabinet, and Society People there is a Good Deal Going on in the Capital.

A DULL CAPITAL. Everybody says that "Washington is so dull just now,-always is .- in the last part of August. August and September are really the worst months of the year te stay in Washington." In proof of this they will say that " there is nobody here." "Everybody is away," and go on and cite that the city is almost totally deserted by the high officials and their following. The President is among the pleasant mountains of New York. The Postmaster-General is in New England, hobnobbing with Secretary Chandler about the political situation. Mr. Teller is in the mountain fastnesses of Colorado. Brewster, Attorney-General, is at Long Branch, Mr. Frelinghuysen is in the Catskills, and Mr. Folger is the only one left here to hold the fort. Mr. Davis, First Assistant Secretary of State, who has been giving much of his attention to Deer Park of late, will soon desert it, as his family leaves there directly for the seaside, going to Wood's Holl and thence to of the President and Cabinet the paster of the President's church, Rev. Dr. Leonard, has declined to take his vacation. Mr. S. P. Rounds, the Public Printer, is at Cape May. Senator Miller and family, who are at Saratoga, leave in a few days for California. Mrs. Hazen, the wife of Gen. Hazen, of the Signal Service, is established for the season at Long Branch. Count Weissenfield, of the Austrian Legation, is at Mount Desert. Senator Gibson of Louisiana, is still at White Sulphur, as is Mr. Corcoran, Washington's millionaire octogenarian. White Sulphur seems to be a favorite resort with these hale old men.

does not find Washington exceptionally dull. Of course if he goes near the Capital he will to his tread, but down along the avenue the crowds in front of the saloons and the hotels, moon-faced, large-stomached men clad in wrinkled seersucker, seem as great as ever. If he happen near the Departments about 4 p. m. he will see such a swarm of ladies clad in sheeny white and comfortable looking men, issue through the marble doors, as to convince him that the resident population of the city has suffered little abatement. Still Washington, with Congress not in session, with the officer-givers and dinner-givers all away at the sea shore, is very dull to folks who think that windy speech-making, officebegging and dinner-eating, constitute the sum of human activity. There are no delegations arriving here to beg the Post-Office at Slunker's Corners for Jones, or fight to the bitter end its being given to Brown, and the hotels and

But for all that there is a world of good hard work being done in keeping the great machinery of the Government in smooth operation. The hotel-keepers, the saloonists and the back-drivers who feed and fatten on the transient visitors, and the Congressmen now resting in the bosom of his constituency may not believe that there is just as much being done to carry on the Government as in the so-called busy months, but it is nevertheless true.

NEW FORM OF GAMBLING.

The stories that have been told of men betting which rain-drop on a window pane would reach the bottom first, which lump of sugar would attract the first fly, which borse would neigh first, and so on through the whole lot of more or less idiotic excuses for wagers, have now a novel addition. The State Department recently received from Mexico, as curiosities, a lot of "traveling beans," the motion being communicated to them by a small worm on the inside, which will propel them along any smooth surface. A number of these were presented to army officers, and report now goes that they are made the subject of exciting bets among the gentlemen who have no other way of disposing of their surplus leisure. The method is to lay a number of beans, one for each man who goes into the pool, on a small table, each man puts a certain sum into the pot, a circle is drawn around the beans, and the man whose bean works outside first takes the pile. It must be very thrilling. MISCELLANEOUS.

The statue of Admiral Dupout, now being cast in New York city, will be placed in position in this city and unvailed with appropriate ceremonies in October.

Thomas A. Osborn, United States Minister to Brazil, who obtained a year's leave of absence last Spring, has been suddenly ordered back to his post. It is rumored here that he has been employing his vacation in paving a way for himself to Mr. Ingalls's seat in the Senate, and that gentleman applied to the State Department to know if the leave of absence granted Mr. Osborn was a scheme of the administration to undermine him (Ingalls) in Kansas. The result of this move on Mr. Ingalls's part (so der to Mr. Osborn to resume his duties at Rio Department goes the rank of Commodore.

Orders have been issued from the Navy Department to begin repairs on the United States steamer Pensacola at the Norfolk Navy Yard, with a view to sending her to the South Atlantic Station as the flagship in place of the Brooklyn, which has been ordered to New York. DEATH OF JUDGE ELA.

Messia. McKee & Benson, of San Francisco, who have been awarded the contract for filling the Potomac flats, are now making arrangements in Baltimore for the construction of the necessary pumps and boats, which will be duplicates of those now being used by the same firm at Oakland Harbor, California. The work will probably commence in about 90 days. THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS.

The President spent the greater part of last week at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. On the 20th he received a number of callers, among them Secretaries Frelinghaysen, Chandler, and Folger, who remained with him some hours discussing official business. Troops guard all outlets to the cholera-ravaged districts of Garfagnana.

A Fatal Epidemic in an Iowa Town. Cantril, a village of 250 inhabitants in Van Buren Co., Ia., is being scourged by a very fatal disease, which is believed to be a violent type of gray or bloody flux, though some of the physicians pronounce it cholera. HALL'S was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause; the entire fulfilment of its promises. The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction. The use for a short time of HALL's HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
